THE ambassador of Great Britain and Lady Geddes will be hosts at dinner this evening at the embassy, when they will entertain the delegates from France, Italy, Japan, Great Britain and the United States, who are here for the international communications congress. The guests will number forty-seven.

Mrs. Meredith, wife of the Secretary of Agriculture, is entertaining about 140 young soldiers from Walter Reed Hospital this afternoon at her apartment on Massachusetts avenue.
Mr. William R. Williams, assistant secretary of war, will be present, as will Col. John S. Fair, U. S. A. Mrs.
Meredith will be assisted in entertaining the boys by Mrs. Baker, wife of the Secretary of War; Mrs. Palmer, wife of the attorney general; Mrs. C.
C. McChord, and a group of young friends of the hostess. A delightful program of entertainment has been planned with solos by Mr. Pierce, recitations, fancy dances by two little children and numbers by a large string orchestra, which will play throughout the afternoon.

Mr. John Henry, who is the guest of the ambassador of Great Britain and Lady Geddes at the embassy, entertained at dinner last evening at the Shoreham, when his guests were Miss Cecilia McCallum, Miss Harding, Mr.
A. P. Graves, Mr. H. V. Tennant and his son, Capt. C. J. Henry, of the embassy staff.

are at the Hotel Dewey, where they will remain until they find a residence suited to their needs.

Brig. Gen. Collardet, military attache of the French embassy, who, with Mme. Collardet, has been at the Shoreham since their return from France, have taken the residence, 1726 N. street, formerly occupied by Mrs. Lincoln G. Valentine.

Mrs. Valentine will accompany her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Jost, to California, to remain for several months.

Society Folk Entertaining.

Mr. Henry Morgenthau of New York, the former United States ambassador to Turkey, who is here for a brief visit, will entertain a company at dinner this evening. Mr. Morgenthau was accompanied to Washington by Capt. and Mrs. Walter Samuel and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Maumbers of London, and the party is staying at the Shoreham.

Brig. Gen. Charles R. Graustoff will entertain informally at dinner tonight at the Cafe St. Marks.

Maj. and Mrs. P. W. West, who have staying with them as guests in the quarters at the Soldiers' Home Gen. and Mrs. W. W. Wetherspoon, will give a tea in their honor Wednesday, October 14, and a dinner the following Saturday.

Maj. Julian C. Smith, U. S. M. C., recently ordered to Quantico, for duty, is with Mrs. Smith spending a few days in Washington filling social en-

Folk Minister in Celebration.

Prince Casimir Lubomirski, minister of Poland, and Princess Lubo-mirska attended the informal Polish reception given at the Peabody Galleries in connection with the homelands exhibit in Baltimore yesterday.
Their presence there made complete the atmosphere of the old continental countries that has been suggested at the Peabody since the collection of "homelands" handicraft and bits of art were put on exhibition there. The visitors were given a charming greeting by a group of Polish girls dressed in native costume, who sang the Polish national anthem. The prince and princess had tea, and were served with little Polish cakes. Later the minister responded to his welcome with a short speech, giving it first in Polish and then in English, in which he quoted the motto, "No Alien Shall Rule," which was inscribed on the historic banner of the division raised for service in the revolutionary war by Count Pulaski, and which was loaned for the occasion yesterday by the Maryland Historical Society. Prince Lubomirski declared that the motto still expressed Poland's sentiments.

The minister of the Netherlands and Mme. Cremer, who were expected back at the legation the latter part of this month, have postponed their return until later in the season and are remaining on at their home in Holland, where they spent the summer.

Jonkheer Dr. W. H. de Beaufort, charge d'affaires of the legation of the Netherlands, has called a meeting of the consuls of his country assigned to the middle-west section of the United States, in Chicago, November 3 and 10, at which he will preside.
Later, in November, he will go to Boston for a large dinner to be given in connection with the celebration of the landing of the pilgrims.

Dr. D. H. Andree, commercial attache of the legation, went to New York last evening, and from there will go to Pittsburgh to make an address.

Dr. J. B. Hubsch, secretary of the legation, has gone to New York to meet his mother, who is arriving from Holland and will spend some time here with him and Mme.
Hubsch, at their home in North Chevy Chase, before making a tour of the country.

Mme. Le Breton, wife of the ambassador of Argentina, and her niece, Miss Manuela Lloveras, who have been abroad all summer, will return on the S. S. Aquitane on November 30.

Mme. Groultch, wife of the minister of Serbs, Croats and Slovenes, who is the guest of Mrs. Hamilton Carhartt, in New York, will return to the legation Saturday.

Dr. Julio Bianchi, the newly appointed minister of Guatemala, and Mme. Bianchi, with their nine children, have arrived in Washington and

Oriental Rugs

at 20% Reduction on Pre-War Prices

During 20th Anniversary Sale

OUR stock of Oriental Rugs is complete in every respect, and you are bound to find the size rugs you've been looking for, which have been so extremely scarce during the past couple of years, due to no shipments being received from the orient. We were indeed very fortunate in securing the past few days Oriental Rugs which were purchased prior to the war, but owing to shipments being delayed were held in warehouses for us until conditions improved. Our showing of over 1,300 Oriental Rugs—all sizes—is without a doubt the largest assortment ever shown in Washington.

EACH rug a genuine masterpiece, and coming from every rug-weaving district where only high-class work is done, you are assured of the very finest that can possibly be obtained. Each rug is a gem from the master weavers' handwork, and comes from Caucasus mountains through Armenia proper, Anatolians, Kurds, Afghanistan, Beloochistan to Persia, where the finest rugs are found.

In order to show in a small way our appreciation to Washingtonians for past patronage we are going to allow 20% reduction on every Oriental Rug in our vast stock—and remember this stock was purchased at pre-war prices—during our Anniversary Sale, which starts promptly at 9 a.m. Friday, October 15.

No rugs will be sent on approval or charged.
